Happy Mother's Day Sunday, May 11th

Her children rise up and call her blessed.

Proverbs 31:28

As I sit here writing my final newsletter article as your pastor, I am reflecting a great deal on these 10 plus years God has allowed me the privilege to serve as your pastor. We as a church have gone through so many wonderful moments together such as building the new worship center, going on numerous international mission trips, our local missions adventures, trips to Israel, and the list could go on and on. What excites me the most is seeing the hundreds if not thousands of lives eternally changed by the power of God and His working through our church. I am so grateful to see life change!!!

I just want to say thank you. Thank you for loving me and my family so well. Thank you for the years of prayers. Thank you for the encouraging words and cards that seemed to always come at just the right time. Thank you for showing up each week ready to serve, ready to learn, and ready to grow. Thank you to all the volunteers that make PRBC what it is. When I arrived in 2013 I was blown away by the number of volunteers our church has and I still am blown away to this day! PRBC is such a special church not because of me, but because of you and what you allow God to do in you and through you.

I want to encourage you to remain faithful during this time of transition. God is preparing the next man to lead you and that man will need you. He will need you to serve and volunteer. He will need you to be excited and enthusiastic to see what God is going to do. He will need your prayers and encouragement the same way I needed them. The best days for PRBC lie ahead, not in the past. I truly believe that. Please know I love you. I am praying for you. I will be praying for you and I look forward to what God is going to do in the days to come here at PRBC.

Grateful for each of you,

Pastor Geoff
